Becoming a friend who helps others succeed

FRIENDSHIP

FEARLESS SERIES

“You are my friends if you do what I command.”

- John 15:14 NIV

What is Friendship?

Fearless Series: Friendship

The emotions or conduct of friends; the state of being friends.

A state of mutual trust and support between [friends].

What kind of friend are you?

Friendship is not something that is earned, but given to people. Choose to be friends with who God has put in your life.

What are the qualities of a great friend?

Think of who you like to spend time with, how you want to be treated, and who you want to become.

Would someone describe you as a great friend? Why or why not?

Think of those qualities discussed above. Do those describe you?

Rudy: You're the only one that ever took me seriously Pete.

Pete: Well, you know what my dad always said, Having dreams is what makes life tolerable.

Know Your Friends

FEARLESS SERIES: FRIENDSHIP

After David had finished talking with Saul, he met Jonathan, the king's son. There was an immediate bond between them, for Jonathan loved David. [2] From that day on Saul kept David with him and wouldn't let him return home. [3] And Jonathan made a solemn pact with David, because he loved him as he loved himself.

- 1 Samuel 18:1-3 NLT

★ Who is your friend?

The first thing you have to do is identify who your closest friend is. Who will you trust more than anyone? Who has God put in your life?

★ Decide to trust your friend

It is a decision to trust, and make that person your closest friend. No one can earn your trust, it is something you choose to give. Jonathan decided to love David.

★ Who can you decide to trust?

What can you share with your close friend that will bring you closer, and build a foundation of trust and honesty?

Friends Point Each Other To God

FEARLESS SERIES: FRIENDSHIP

Now David became aware that Saul had come out to seek his life while David was in the wilderness of Ziph at Horesh. [16] And Jonathan, Saul's son, arose and went to David at Horesh, and encouraged him in God. [17] Thus he said to him, "Do not be afraid, because the hand of Saul my father will not find you, and you will be king over Israel and I will be next to you; and Saul my father knows that also." [18] So the two of them made a covenant before the LORD; and David stayed at Horesh while Jonathan went to his house.

- 1 Samuel 23:15-18 NASB

- ★ Friends point each other to God
Everyone needs friends who are going to bring God into the conversation. To help the other person work whatever they need to out with God.
- ★ Friends sacrifice
Jonathan sacrificed his birthright to be king for David to succeed. He trusted God with his future enough to sacrifice it.
- ★ How do you feel about God? Is he someone you want to pursue?
What can you do to help you friends be encouraged to seek God? (i.e. relational, honest, vulnerable)

Sacrifice For Your Friends

FEARLESS SERIES: FRIENDSHIP

“So this is my command: Love each other deeply, as much as I have loved you. [13] For the greatest love of all is a love that sacrifices all. And this great love is demonstrated when a person sacrifices his life for his friends.

- John 15:12-13 TPT

★ Love deeply

We are meant to love our friends deeply. Do you think about your friends and what they need more or less than you think about yourself?

★ Love sacrificially

Friends are meant to sacrifice for one another. If we can't sacrifice the simplest things, then how can we call ourselves friends?

What is your response to “sacrifice”?

★ What comes to mind?

What have you been unwilling to sacrifice to make your friend better? (i.e. comfort, a possession, a position/status, etc.)

Talk it through

How can God help you become a friend that is willing to sacrifice for others to succeed?

“

A friend is one that knows you as you are, understands where you have been, accepts what you have become, and still, gently allows you to grow.

-William Shakespeare
